

Celebration of Life & Remembrance

for

Larry Lee Barden

Friday December 28, 2007

Twelve O'clock Noon

Scarborough & Hargett Memorial Chapel

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road,
And the sun has set for me, I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul
set free?*

*Miss me a little but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.*

*Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me, but let me go.*

*For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It is all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home
When you're lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know,
Bury your sorrow in doing good deeds
Miss me, but let me go.*

Order of Service

Processional

Hymn

Congregation

Old Testament

Psalm 23

New Testament

I Thessalonians 4:13-18

Prayer of Comfort

Remarks (2 minutes please)

Hymn

Congregation

Words of Comfort

Reverend Mary L. Ashford

Benediction

Recessional

Life Reflections

Larry Lee Barden was born February 3, 1946 to Lee Andrew Barden and Blanche Gregory Barden.

He attended Fisher Memorial United Holy Church. Larry was educated in the Durham City School System and graduated from Hillside High School in 1964. He furthered his education at North Carolina Central University, receiving his B.A. degree in 1968. Larry entered the United States Air Force in 1968, followed with employment at C & P Telephone Company in Baltimore, Maryland; Duke University; UNC Chapel Hill; Liggett-Myers Tobacco Company and IBM Selectron.

Larry departed this earthly life on Sunday, December 23, 2007. His memory will live on through his wife, Rita Sampson Barden; his children, Lawrence A. Barden and Atir K. Barden; his brothers and sisters-in-law, Walter Barden (Elizabeth), Vernon Barden (Dorothy) of Baltimore, Maryland; his dear nieces, Sheila B. Johnson and Gwendolyn B. Anderson of Baltimore, Delores Tippett of Durham, North Carolina, and a host of nephews, nieces, extended family, very dear friends and wonderful neighbors.